Yumi & Rick

Aloha Family and Friends,
Our usual Christmas Letter has turned into a Happy New Year Letter but sent with just as much love and blessings! We praise God for all our blessings in 2007 and we're ready for the new year to begin! IT'S GOING TO BE GREAT IN 2008!

Rick, Father of the Bride

Rick's most dramatic experience this year was being the Father of the Bride! It wasn't easy for Daddy to give his daughter away! Emotional yet a touching several minutes. In June, Rick & Yumi enjoyed a beautiful trip to Kauai and thanks to Dave and Lori taking us on their boat to remote beaches and excellent cuisine! Enjoyed friends visiting from Santa Barbara, Robin & Nancy, Lance & Shelley. Even John David came home to help Dad with the garage doors. In February, Rick's special pal, Akebono, went to Doggie Heaven. Akebone was "Da Bes" and we miss him. Rick's new pals, Lovebirds, "Ake"& "Bono" are really cute and full of mischief! Their more appropriate names are: "Dumb & Dumber".

Yumi...

The "Laney Ladies" want to thank all their family, friends and clients for making 2007 a very successful year! Puanani Kelly, Yumi's assistant has moved to Washington and Christina is now working side by side with Yumi as a licensed REALTOR® and she's also taking the extra duties of what Puanani did as well! We are thankful for Puanani's service, loyalty and friendship and we already miss her. Yumi attended Coldwell Banker business conferences in Los Angeles and Monterey. Networked with the top agents in the country and had some quality time with Mom & Dad on the Monterey Peninsula. Went to her 40th Pacific Grove high school reunion, also visited with some Santa Barbara College friends. Christina and Scooter are officially part of the Laney family, they moved into 1306 Hoolaulea with Mom and Dad! We are one big happy family and amazingly enough, we are all getting along. John David is working on the Jensen's yacht which is in Mexico now. He was
